Commonwealth relates.

- (l) the establishment and support, or aiding in the establishment and support, of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, schemes or conveniences calculated to benefit employees or past employees of the Association and their dependents, and the granting of pensions, allowances or other benefits to employees or past employees of the Association and their dependents, and the making of payments towards insurance in relation to any of those purposes.
- (m) the establishment and support, or aiding in the establishment or support, of any other association formed for any of the basic objects of the Association.
- (n) the purchase, or acquisition, and the undertaking of all or part of the property, assets, liabilities or engagements of any association with which the Association is amalgamated in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the rules of the Association.
- (o) the doing of any lawful thing incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects or purposes of the Association.

5. Not-for-profit

- (1) The Association must not distribute any income or assets directly or indirectly to its members except as provided in clause 8.
- (2) Subrule (1) does not stop the Association from doing the following things, provided they are done in good faith:
  - (a) paying a member for goods or services they have provided or expenses they have properly incurred at fair and reasonable rates more favourable to the Association.
  - (b) making a payment to a member in carrying out the Association's charitable purpose(s).

6. Membership of Association

- (1) A person who is nominated and approved for membership in accordance with this rule is eligible to be a member of the Association on payment of the annual subscription specified in rule 33.
- (2) A person who is not a member of the Association at the time of the incorporation of the Association is not to be admitted as a member of the Association unless –
  - (a) the person is nominated for membership in accordance with subrule (3); and
  - (b) the person is approved for membership by the Board.
- (3) A nomination of a person for membership is to be –
  - (a) made in writing and signed by 2 members of the Association; and
  - (b) accompanied by the written consent of the person nominated; and
  - (c) lodged with the public officer of the Association.
- (4) The consent referred to in subrule (3)(b) may be endorsed on the nomination.
- (5) As soon as practicable after the receipt of a nomination, the public officer is to refer the nomination to the Board.
- (6) If a nomination is approved by the Board, the public officer is to –
  - (a) notify the nominee, in writing, that the nominee has been approved for membership of the Association; and
  - (b) on receipt of the amount payable by the nominee as the first annual subscription, enter the nominee's name in a register of members.
- (7) A member of the Association may resign by serving on the public officer a written notice of resignation.
- (8) On receipt of a notice from a member of the Association under subrule (7), the public officer is to remove the name of the member from the register of members.
- (9) A person –

- (a) becomes a member of the Association when his or her name is entered in the register of members; and
- (10) ceases to be a member of the Association when his or her name is removed from the register of members.
- (11) The public officer is to maintain, or establish and maintain, a register of members containing –
  - (a) the name of each member of the Association and the date on which he or she became a member; and
  - (b) the member's postal or residential address or address of business or employment; and
  - (c) an email address, if any, that the member has nominated as the email address to which notices from the Association may be sent; and
  - (d) the name of each person who has ceased to be a member of the Association and the date on which the person ceased to be a member of the Association.

7. Liability of members

- (1) Any right, privilege or obligation of a person as a member of the Association –
  - (a) is not capable of being transferred to another person; and
  - (b) terminates on the cessation of the membership.
- (2) If the Association is wound up, each member of the Association, and each person who was a member of the Association within the period of 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the winding-up, is liable to contribute –
  - (a) to the assets of the Association for payment of the liabilities of the Association; and
  - (b) for the costs, charges and expenses of the winding-up; and
  - (c) for the adjustment of the rights of the contributors among themselves.
- (3) Any liability under subrule (11) is not to exceed $500.
- (4) Despite subrule (11), a former member of the Association is not liable to contribute under that subrule in respect of any liability of the Association incurred after he or she ceased to be a member.

8. Income and property of Association

- (1) The income and property of the Association is to be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects and purposes of the Association.
- (2) No portion of the income or property of the Association is to be paid or transferred to pay a member of the Board remuneration in return for carrying out the functions of a member of the Board.
- (3) No portion of the income or property of the Association is to be paid or transferred to any member of the Association unless the payment or transfer is made in accordance with this rule. The Association may –
  - (a) pay an employee or member of the Association –
    - (i) remuneration in return for services rendered to the Association, or for goods supplied to the Association, in the ordinary course of business of the employee or member; remuneration that constitutes a reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employee or member for any of the objects or purposes of the Association; or
    - (ii) interest at a rate not exceeding the official cash rate (as determined and stipulated by the Reserve Bank of Australia) on money lent to the Association by the employee or member; or
    - (iii) a reasonable amount by way of rent for premises, or a part of premises, let to the Association by the employee or member; and
  - (b) if so requested by or on behalf of any other association, organisation or body, appoint or nominate a member of the Association to an office in that other association, organisation or body.

- (4) Despite subrule (3)(a), the Association is not to pay a person any amount under that subrule unless the Association or Board has first approved that payment.
- (5) Despite subrule (3)(b), the Association is not to appoint or nominate a member of the Association under that subrule to an office in respect of which remuneration is payable unless the Association or Board has first approved –
  - (a) that appointment or nomination; and
  - (b) the receipt of that remuneration by that member.

9. Accounts of receipts and expenditure

- (1) True accounts are to be kept of the following:

- (2) The accounts are to be open to inspection by the members of the Association at any reasonable time, and in any reasonable manner, determined by the Board.
- (3) The treasurer of the Association is to keep all accounting books, and general records and records of receipts and payments, connected with the business of the Association in the form and manner the Board determines.
- (4) The accounts, books and records are to be kept at the Association's office or at any other place the Board determines.

10. Banking and finance

- (1) On behalf of the Association, the treasurer of the Association is to –
    - (a) receive any money paid to the Association; and
    - (b) immediately after receiving the money, issue an official receipt in respect of the money; and
    - (c) cause the money to be paid into the account opened under subrule (2) as soon as practicable after it is received.
  - (2) The Board is to open with an authorised deposit-taking institution an account in the name of the Association.
  - (3) The Board may –
    - (a) receive from an authorised deposit-taking institution a cheque drawn by the Association on any of the Association's accounts with the authorised deposit-taking institution; and
    - (b) release or indemnify the authorised deposit-taking institution from or against any claim, or action or other proceeding, arising directly or indirectly out of the drawing of that cheque.
- Except with the authority of the Board, a payment of an amount exceeding $20 is not to be made from the funds of the Association other than
- (a) by cheque drawn on the Association's account; or
  - (4) by the electronic transfer of funds from the Association's account to another account at an authorised deposit-taking institution.
- (5) The Board may provide the treasurer with an amount of money to meet urgent expenditure, subject to any conditions the Board may impose in relation to the expenditure.
  - (6) A cheque is not to be drawn on the Association's account, and an amount is not to be electronically transferred from the Association's account to another account at an authorised deposit-taking institution, except for the purpose of making a payment that has been authorised by the Board.
- A cheque, draft, bill of exchange, promissory note or other negotiable instrument is to be –
- 1. signed by the treasurer or, in the treasurer's absence, by any other member, or members, of the Board the Board nominates for that purpose; and

- (a) countersigned by the public officer of the Association.
- (2) An electronic transfer of an amount from the Association's account to another account at an authorised deposit-taking institution –
  - (a) may only be authorised by the treasurer or, in the treasurer's absence, by any other member, or members, of the Board the Board nominates for that purpose; and
  - (b) may only be authorised by a person referred to in paragraph (a) if the authorisation has been approved by the public officer.

11. Auditor

- (7) At each annual general meeting, the members of the Association present at the meeting are to appoint a person as the auditor of the Association.
- (8) If an auditor is not appointed at an annual general meeting under subrule (1), the Board is to appoint a person as the auditor of the Association as soon as practicable after that annual general meeting.
- (9) The auditor is to hold office until the next annual general meeting and is eligible for re-appointment.
- (10) The first auditor –
  - (a) may be appointed by the Board before the first annual general meeting; and
  - (b) if so appointed, holds office until the first annual general meeting unless earlier removed by a resolution of the members of the Association at a general meeting.
- (11) If the first auditor is appointed by the Board under subrule (4)(a) and subsequently removed at a general meeting under subrule (4)(b), the members of the Association, at that general meeting, may appoint an auditor to hold office until the first annual general meeting.
- (12) Except as provided in subrule (4)(b), the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.
- (13) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor, the Board is to appoint a person to fill the vacancy until the end of the next annual general meeting.

12. Audit of accounts

- (14) The auditor is to audit the financial affairs of the Association at least once in each financial year of the Association.
- (15) The auditor, after auditing the financial affairs of the Association for a particular financial year of the Association, is to –
  - (a) certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Association; and
  - (b) at the next annual general meeting, provide a written report to the members of the Association who are present at that meeting.
- (3) In the report and in certifying to the accounts, the auditor is to –
  - (a) specify the information, if any, that he or she has required under subrule (5)(b) and obtained; and
  - (b) state whether, in his or her opinion, the accounts exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Association according to the information at his or her disposal; and
  - (c) state whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Association have been observed.
- (4) The public officer of the Association is to deliver to the auditor a list of all the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association.
- (5) The auditor may –
  - (a) have access to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association; and
  - (b) require from any employee of, or person who has acted on behalf of, employee the Association any information the auditor considers necessary for the performance of his or her duties; and

- (c) employ any person to assist in auditing the financial affairs of the Association; and
- (d) examine any member of the Board, or any employee of, or person who has acted on behalf of, the Association, in relation to the accounting records, books and accounts of the Association.
- (e) Exemptions under the Act
- (f) For any financial year that the Association is exempt from the requirement to be audited by virtue of section 24(1B) or (1C) of the Act –
- (g) (a) an auditor is not required to be appointed for that financial year under rule 11 unless the Association elects to have the financial affairs of the Association for that financial year audited in accordance with the Act and these rules; and
- (h) if an auditor is not appointed for a financial year by virtue of paragraph (a) -
- (i) rules 11 and 12 do not apply in respect of the Association for that financial year; and
- (ii) rule 13(5)(b), to the extent that it relates to an auditor, does not apply in respect of the annual general meeting held by the Association in respect of that financial year; and
- (iii) rule 13(5)(d) does not apply in respect of the annual general meeting held by the Association in respect of that financial year.
- (2) For any financial year that the Association is exempt from the requirement to provide an annual return by virtue of section 24(1B) of the Act, the Board must provide, as part of the ordinary business of the annual general meeting for that financial year, a copy of the annual financial report given under the ACNC Act in respect of that financial year.

13. Annual general meeting

The Association is to hold an annual general meeting each year.

- (1) An annual general meeting is to be held on any day (being not later than 5 months ~~at~~ the end of the financial year of the Association) the Board determines.
  - (2) An annual general meeting is to be in addition to any other general meeting that may be held in the same year.
- The notice convening an annual general meeting is to specify the purpose of the meeting.
- (3) The ordinary business of an annual general meeting is to be as follows:
    - (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting.
    - (b) to receive from the Board, auditor, employees and other persons acting on behalf of the Association reports on the transactions of the Association during the last preceding financial year of the Association.
    - (c) to elect the officers of the Association and the ordinary Board members.
    - (d) to appoint the auditor and determine his or her remuneration.
    - (e) to determine the remuneration of employees of the Association.

An annual general meeting may transact business of which notice is given in accordance with rule 15.

- (4) Minutes of proceedings of an annual general meeting are to be kept, in the minute book of the Association, by the public officer or, in the absence from the meeting of the public officer, by an officer of the Association who is nominated by the chairperson of the meeting.

14. Special general meetings

- (1) The Board may convene a special general meeting of the Association at any time.
- (2) The Board, on the requisition in writing of at least 3 members of the Association, is to convene a special general meeting of the Association.
- (3) A requisition for a special general meeting –

- (a) is to state the objects of the meeting; and
  - (b) is to be signed by each of the requisitionists; and
  - (c) is to be deposited at the office of the Association; and
  - (d) may consist of several documents, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists.
- (4) If the Board does not cause a special general meeting to be held within 21 days after the day on which a requisition is deposited at the office of the Association, any one or more of the requisitionists may convene the meeting within 3 months after the day of the deposit of the requisition.
- (5) A special general meeting convened by requisitionists is to be convened in the same manner, as nearly as practicable, as the manner in which a special general meeting would be convened by the Board.
- (6) All reasonable expenses incurred by requisitionists in convening a special general meeting are to be refunded by the Association.

15. Notices of general meetings

At least 14 days before the day on which a general meeting of the Association is to be held, the public officer of the Association is to publish in a notice specifying –

- (a) the place, day and time at which the meeting is to be held; and
  - (b) the nature of the business that is to be transacted at the meeting.
- (2) A notice is published for the purposes of subrule (1) if the notice –
- (a) is contained in an advertisement appearing in at least one newspaper circulating in Tasmania; or
  - (b) appears on a website, or at an electronic address, of the Association; or
  - (c) is sent to each member of the Association at –
    - (i) the member's postal or residential address or address of business or employment; or
    - (ii) an email address that the member has nominated as the email address to which notices from the Association may be sent; or
  - (d) is given by another means, determined by the public officer, that is reasonably likely to ensure that the members of the Association will be notified of the notice.

16. Business and quorum at general meetings

- (1) All business transacted at a general meeting, other than the ordinary business of an annual general meeting, is special business.
